Neighborhood

280 Johnson Avenue is located at the center of Bushwick's burgeoning arts and creative industries district, filled with galleries, studios, co-working spaces, boutiques, vintage shops, restaurants, and bars.

The property is in close proximity to both the Morgan Avenue and Montrose Avenue L Train stations, allowing for quick and easy access to nearby Williamsburg, and Union Square in Manhattan.

280 Johnson Ave is also within walking distance of Justice Gilbert Ramirez Park, and some of Bushwick's most popular businesses, such as restaurants Roberta's and Blanca, Other Times Vintage store, and music venue Pine Box Rock Shop.

A flourishing artist community, which has existed in Bushwick for decades, is now a main demographic of Bushwick; dozens of art studios and galleries are scattered throughout the neighborhood. There are several open studios programs that help the public visit artist studios and galleries and a number of websites dedicated to promoting neighborhood art and events. Bushwick artists display their works in galleries and private spaces throughout the neighborhood. The borough's first and only trailer park, a 20-person art collective established by founder, Hayden Cummings and ZenoRadio's Baruch Herzfeld for creatives to reside and work was established within a former nut roasting factory.

Graffiti art and murals line the streets in a neighborhood bursting with creative energy.
